“ My Aunt Linda was the greatest Aunt anyone could ever ask for. The most kindest hearted woman in the whole world. Every memory that I have with her is a memory I will cherish forever. Right now we are lost without you but we will get through this like you would want us to. But just know we will always miss you! I love you so much!

“ I was so blessed to have known Linda Harper(nana)! There was never a time that she turned me away or even had a harsh word to say to me. I loved her like my own grandmother. She will be telling me that all of us we know that she gained her wings for sure, all the given and loving that she did for everybody, she came in contact with! She was so good to so many people and so many different ways. RIP Nana fly high with the angels until we meet again!

“ I'm so heartbroken to hear of her passing. Linda always had a place for me when I needed it. And all the laughs we had back then. I know that Linda Harper entered heaven because she was an angel to so many here. My thoughts are with Stacy, Macy, and Ben as well as the rest of her family. I loved her and she will forever be in my heart.

My thoughts and prayers are with Linda's loved ones. Stacy, Macy and Ben all thought she hung the moon 🌙 and made believers of everyone they knew. They were there for her in every way possible and I have much admiration for them all. I visited their home several times and was always made feel welcome. I will always remember the love that was evident each and every time I saw Linda, she always had a smile.
