“ Mrs. Adams and your dear family. I was so sad to learn of the passing of brother Adams. He was a wonderful preacher and I am forever in his debt to help lead my parents and me to Jesus Christ. Mt. Olive Baptist Church was a wonderful home of faith for my parents, Etheridge & Eula Bennett and myself. He was also a dear friend to us all. Your family was very precious to us and I will always remember you all. So sorry for your loss and praying your grief will be replaced with wonderful memories of a fine man, husband and father.
