

Loretta Bailey

November 17, 1942 - October 5, 2021

Loretta Bailey was born on the beautiful island of Jamaica West Indies in the district of Nine Turns in the parish of Clarendon. She met the love of her life Chevance Bailey and they were married in April 1972.

Seeking to further her career as a registered nurse she migrated to the United States in 1989. Her husband and children later followed and the family lived in Queens NY.

Loretta dedicated over 35 years of her life to the noble profession of nursing and worked as a registered nurse at Mount Sinai of Queens Hospital and also served as a school nurse for some years before retiring in August of 2009.

She was a devout Christian, a virtuous wife, a devoted mother, an awesome sister, the best grandmother, an admired cousin and just an all-around wonderful family member and friend to so many.

After several visits to the Peach state following her retirement she decided to make Georgia her home.

She was an exceptional woman who exemplified God's love as was shown to her children, to those she mentored and even to total strangers.

As a nurse she performed her demanding duties with willingness and with compassion. She practiced and taught those around her to care for others in a manner that would show they truly cared and we're not just doing a job. She was respected and admired by her colleagues and she was greatly appreciated by the patients she took care of. Loretta spent her whole life helping others. She was always there for those in need whether they needed to take shelter in her home during a difficult time or simply wanted an ear that would listen without judging, condemning or prejudging. She was a reassuring presence for her husband, her children, her friends, her work colleagues and her entire family. She was well known and admired, was authentic, humble, generous, and filled with integrity. She was an all-around well-grounded individual. She loved watching movies, baseball and basketball. She enjoyed going to Bible studies and church services she was always willing to give just a little more of herself than was required and she was willing to sacrifice everything so that her family would lack nothing. Her family will quickly let you know that not only was she a great cook but she was an even better baker. Christmases, birthdays and holidays were made extra special with her famous fruitcakes. In the words of one of her children if you want to experience something heavenly then you needed to try a piece of her delicious fruitcake. On Tuesday, October 5, 2021 our mother, our queen, our angel, was called to rest. Take your rest mother, sleep in peace with the assurance that you will never be forgotten...you will remain in our hearts forever.

Funeral Services will be held Saturday, October 23, 2021 at 1 p.m. with Rev. Nolan Jackson, Sr. officiating; interment will follow at Green Meadow Memorial Gardens. May the pains of this present life die soon, and life without end find us around God's throne together with Sister Bailey. Even so, Lord Jesus, come quickly. We would be praying for those left behind to mourn her passing. Joy will come in the morning.

Praise God for the life and service of Loretta Stredwick-Bailey who I met 55 years ago. Her marriage to Chevance in 1972 is etched in my memory and I was a part of wedding ceremony and reception. (Bestman/Chief groomsman) Loretta was a gentle soul with a pleasant smile and a warm spirit. Due to migration we lost contact for many years but reconnect a few years ago since her living in Conyers. Loretta served her husband, children, family's, friends and her nursing profession well. She faced the challenges of life with grace and humiity. Her life's journey has now ended but her soul and spirit have transition to the LORD. There is that "Blessed Hope" that she will be among the First Fruits of the resurrection on that Great Day when the Shofar will sound. "Blessed are they that mourn for they'll be comforted." Matt.5: 4. Shalom. Cleveland Anderson.

“ My mom, my friend, the greatest influence in my life. How do I picture life without your love, guidance, small talk, your comforting smile and welcoming ear. The lord has taken you into his loving arms and I will not get the opportunity to hug and tell you I love you again. In my heart, I know you are in a better place. You have made me into the Tam Tam I am today and I want to say thank you mom. I will continue to carry you in my heart until we meet again.

“ My heart can sing when I pause to remember, A heartache here is but a stepping stone, Along a trail that's winding always upward- This troubled world is not my final home. The things of earth will dim and lose their value, If we recall, they're borrowed for awhile, And things of earth that cause the heart to tremble, Remembered there will only bring a smile. This weary world with all its toil and struggle. May take its toll of misery and strife; The soul of man is like a waiting falcon. When it's released it's destined for the skies. Words above was one of Loretta's favorite song. I have known Loretta for a short time just about twenty three years, which was in New York at Evangel Baptist Church located in Laurelton Queens, actually we are from the same country which is Jamaica but from different area and we have never came across each other until we were in the United States. Isn't it the most convenient place to be acquainted with someone than being in the house of God. This shows the type and quality you found in a person. Loretta was a kind hearted, loving, compassionate, honest and a reliable person, just think of the Proverbs 31 woman. That's Loretta. She was just a warm, soft spoken and a easy going person. Every now and then when it's Christmas seasons she would bake Fruit cake and that was part of her gifts to her surroundings. She was a loving, caring and compassionate mother, speaking of caring which not only comes from taking care of her family but also from her professional skill as a nurse. Loretta have stripped herself of those earthly garments and is now being robed in her heavenly garment in the Arms of Jesus. Will her legacy continue to portray in the lives of her children and grandchildren. Sleep on my sister. Rest In Peace. But until then my heart will go on singing, Until then with joy I'll carry on- Until the day my eyes behold the city, Until the day God calls me home. Sister in Christ.... Pat Hyman

My dear aunt Loretta. So calm. So poised. So classy. A Godly woman.
Never hear her speak above her normal voice. Never see her have a bad hair day. The smile that lights up the room as you entered. You will never know when she is having a bad day. The strong work ethic.
Always hear one of the children saying mummy is gone to work on mummy is sleeping because she is going to work. You will forward be in my heart. Sleep on until we meet again.

“ Mrs. Bailey and I met over 30 years ago. She commanded an audience when she entered the room without uttering a single word. She was meticulously dressed, not a strand of hair was out of place and her finger nails were immaculately manicured. I was nervous but she greeted me with a warm smile that was genuine and I felt at ease.

As the years went by, I got to know Mrs. Bailey even better and the first impression I had of her exude who she really was. A humble and genuine woman devoted to family and profession. I visited Mrs. Bailey's home very often, especially when she lived in New York and I was never made to feel unwelcome.

She was always involved in my son Chevance Bailey the third life and I had to update her on his milestones, illnesses, school life and achievements. She never missed any of his graduations.

Mrs Bailey was an excellent cook and baker and I especially loved her fruit cakes.

Proverbs 31 verse 27 to 29 gives a perfect description of Loretta Bailey: She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. 28. Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. 29. Many women do noble things but you surpass them all.

Rest well Mrs. Bailey, we love you dearly and deeply but God loves you best.

I have not met another human being that is so humble, it was so easy for you to put a smile on another person's face. She was loving, kind and compassionate. She exemplified everything a phenomenal woman should be and even more. She brought joy to all those who had the privilege of meeting her, our world was better just by her being in it. She may no longer be here with you physically, but she will live on in the memories you have and in the persons she have molded you into being. As a family take comfort in knowing that she has left a fine legacy behind in the persons of you, her children and grandchildren. You loved her and you showed that love.
