“ *A belated condolences to Louise 's family and friends of her passing.
The Bible often compare death to sleep(John 11:11-14) .God can awaken the dead just as we awake a person from sleep. Job14:13-15.*

“ Nana will be missed tremendously to all that knew her. She always treated me like a son and made me feel special. Her sense of humor was second to none. She leaves behind a legacy of an open door at her home, an easy smile and a beautiful spirit. I love you Nana, Eric

“ My favorite memories of this amazing woman are too many to share. She was everything to me, she taught me so many things over the years. She was strong, beautiful, funny, charismatic, loving, and the most intelligent person I have ever known. She was always there when I needed her. I can say the one thing that we did the most together were puzzles I remember being a little kid going to Nana's and there was always a puzzle on the table. I would always sit with her and try to help her do these and through the years it was something that we always shared together. I will miss her with all my being. She was truly my best friend. I rejoice in the fact that she is now home with our father and I cannot wait to see those beautiful blue eyes and hear that infectious laugh again one day. I love you Nana.

“ Dear Mr. Levens and family: We want to express our deepest sympathy in the passing of Mrs. Levens. We were so sorry to hear this news. Our parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Olin Smith, built the home that you purchased and made your home. Mother and I drew the plans per what they felt they needed after the awful tornado that destroyed the home place that we dearly loved. We were delighted when you purchased this beautiful piece of property. I know that Mrs. Levens has moved out and into a much more beautiful place and our prayers are with you during this difficult time. Pastor James and Kathryn Smith West, Frances Smith Cameron, Ann Smith MacCarthy (next door neighbors), Marian Smith Norton and Charles Smith.

“ Memories Where to start there are so many. Friday=Saturday nights looking for the smiling face come thru the door at the Auction dragging Bob behind her.. She never seem to not be happy. We started our number system at 100, her and Bob held number 107, tells you how long we were able to enjoy her friendship. Our last number issued was 8,948. She had so many friends at the Auction. After we closed our auction we didn't get to see her as much but never forgot her and Bob. We will miss her but know she is at peace, God welcome this lady as she will make you a wonderful Angel.

“ I only knew Lou from our connection at the Antique Mall Lingerin Memories. Because of that we ran into each other at garage sales quite often. I always enjoyed running into her and having little quick conversations. She was a sweet lady and made a mark in this world. I will miss seeing her. Judy Hodgkin

I'm Joann Thomas, Lou & I have known each other for about 37 years, she has always been there with an open ear encouraging you with what ever problems you may have to do the right thing. She & I would have the best conversations we would always make one another laugh. God called his ANGEL to heaven, I'm truly going to miss you!
RIP
