

Lowry Franklin Hall

April 15, 1943 - March 18, 2026

Today we gather to honor and remember our father, Lowry Franklin Hall.

Dad was 82 years old. He was born in Royston, Georgia, and raised in Elbert County-places that shaped the strong, hardworking man we all knew. On March 18th at 2:18 p.m., he passed away from complications of strokes, surrounded by the love of his family.

He proudly served our country in the United States Army for six years as a sharpshooter and military policeman. That discipline and sense of duty stayed with him throughout his life.

After his service, Dad built a long and steady career with Georgia Power, where he worked for 30 years before retiring. But retirement didn't slow him down-he went on to become a contractor, building homes and continuing to work with his hands, something he truly loved.

Dad was a family man at his core. He found joy in the simple things-bowling, fishing, fixing things around the house. If something was broken, Dad could fix it. If something needed to be built, he could build it. And if someone needed help, he was there.

He is survived by his sister, Angela Rooker; his niece, Jessica Rooker

Campbell; and his nephew, Jon Vickery. He was preceded in death by his nephew, Jeremy Rooker.

He is survived by his first wife, Carol Ann Scurlock of Hartwell, Georgia; and his devoted partner, Syble Folds of Conyers, Georgia, who shared his life in recent years. He was preceded in death by his second wife, Barbara Jean Hall of Conyers, Georgia.

He leaves behind his daughters: Allison Leigh Gomez and her husband James of Monroe, Georgia; Tracy Lea Blackmore and her husband James of Oxford, Georgia; Sandy Dale Glover and Jeni Suzanne Standard of Stone Mountain, Georgia; and myself, Susan Elizabeth Werner, and my husband Adam of St. Cloud, Florida.

He is also survived by his grandchildren: Kaitlyn Ashley Werner, Bayleigh Victoria Polizzi, Josephine Anais Standard, Michael James Blackmore, and Cooper Sage Standard; and his great-grandchildren: Arielle Rose French, Easton Cain Polizzi, Harper Elizabeth Polizzi, and Amelia Jane Polizzi.

Dad leaves behind a legacy of strength, dedication, and love for his family. His life was one of quiet consistency-showing up, working hard, and caring deeply for the people around him.

He may no longer be with us in person, but the things he built, the lessons he taught, and the love he gave will stay with us always.

We love you, Dad. And we will carry you with us, every day.

Condolences may be submitted on-line at www.scotward.com. Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Road, Conyers, GA 30012, 770-483-7216.

“ Larry will always be a special person in my life. He was a friend, my husband, father to Allison & Susan and then a friend again. I can just look at our daughters and see you. Larry you will always have a special place in my heart and you are missed. So many people cared about you, loved you and will miss you. Thoughts and prayers for Allison, Susan and their family, your awesome sister Angela and her family, Tracy and her family, Sandy and her family and I can't forget Syble who you adored.
