

Madeline Jeanette Supple

March 27, 1924 - May 20, 2017

Madeline Jeanette Supple was born March 27, 1924, and entered into eternal life on May 20, 2017. Born in Bridgeport, Connecticut, as a young woman she worked in a parachute factory during World War II to support the war effort. After the war she worked as a telephone operator until she married Raymond Supple, Sr. on April 26, 1947. They were happily married for 67 years until his death in 2015. Madeline was the ultimate homemaker whose greatest joy was raising her four children. A woman of many talents, Madeline quilted, painted, crocheted, did other needlework, and gardened. An accomplished cook, she compiled a cookbook of her favorite recipes, the prized one being her Italian mother's special recipe for Italian meatballs and sauce. Madeline also was the consummate volunteer. From being a Cub Scout leader, sewing flags and uniforms for a drum and bugle corps, to making baptismal bibs for newly baptized babies, Madeline gave of herself. She lovingly cared for newborn babies for the Archdiocese of Miami until the infants were adopted, keeping a photo album of these children as a remembrance. For over thirty years, she volunteered in various capacities at St. Pius X Church in Conyers. In addition to her husband, Madeline was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Frances McMullen, brother, William McMullen, and sister, Betty Hanusovsky. She is survived by sons, Raymond, Jr. (Mary), William, and Patrick, and daughter, Maureen; grandchildren, William (Merle), Donald, Joey (Amanda) Supple, and Christine (Brook) Bedell and Lisa (Scott) Turner; great-grandchildren, Connor, Madelyn, Nathan and Lillian Supple, and Jackson, Grant, and Brett Bedell. Visitation will be at Scot Ward on Thursday from 6-8 p.m. Funeral Mass will be on Friday, May 26 at 11 at St. Pius X Catholic Church.
