She taught children's and youth Sunday School at Rockdale Baptist Church until she moved her membership to Conyers First United Methodist Church, where she was a member of the Maxwell Sunday School Class. Jean's caregivers, niece and nephew, Elaine and Randy Cole, wish to thank all who cared for Jean during her residence the last four years at Oaks at Ashton Hills. The care partners and nurses at Oaks were caring, loving, and kind, not only in caring for Jean but to her family as well. We always felt the patience, understanding, and care in that blessed home. Likewise, we want thank the hospice facilities who attended to Aunt Jean, Longleaf Hospice and later, until her passing, Brightmoor Hospice. “ I was fortunate to meet Jean when I retired in 1993 and started volunteering at the hospital. We worked together in the gift shop and I experienced Jean's friendship and her love and care that she shared with everyone she came in contact with. My memories of Jean are all great ones. Rest in peace my friend. Joyce Collins
