“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Death is a very terrible thing to experience for anyone. But what i find comforting are God's word found in the bible at Rev. 21: 3, 4. Specifically verse 4 where it states, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This gives us hope that we will one day see our dead loved ones again. I hope you find this just as comforting as i have.

“ To my sweet grandma - I love you dearly. You taught me to be a strong, independent woman and to always stand for what you believe. I respect and love you with all of my heart and cherish all of times we spent together here on earth. I know you will be looking down on me and watching over me. I love you so much grandma.

“ Words are never enough as we say goodbye to a precious person in our life and in this case that has never been more true. Larry, Lamar, Gary - I am so sorry and I do know how your heart hurts because there is nothing that hurts worse than saying goodbye to Momma. Jimmy, Levia and Sarah - I am so sorry you have had to say goodbye to another sibling, saying goodbye to one was the greatest heartbreak I have ever known. The one thing I do know is Margaret wouldn't trade with a one of us tonight. She is celebrating with all of our loved ones that have gone on before and she was so ready. He has left many precious memories with us and she will make sure she is watching over you boys now as she always has. You just have another guardian angel. She was always your biggest cheerleader no matter what anybody said and that will never change. Love you all and will always be here if you need me.
