“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ My condolences to the family of Marie Pittman. She was a wonderful, caring and thoughtful person. I grew up with her and Mr. Pittman as our next door neighbors and saw them often. They were wonderful when my father was sick with cancer and passed away and were very good friends. We always enjoyed getting together with them every Christmas and celebrating the season. We considered her an extended member of our family and she will be missed. The world was a better place having her as a part of it.

Love,

Marie was a lovely person and I enjoyed her French accent. She was also a good cook--showed me how to cook venison. Ken and my husband, Norm, went hunting together. Fond memories! Rita Bissell
