“ Wonderful Mother and Grandmother.

*You can rest in peace knowing you raised a wonderful family..
No finer man on earth than you son Allen, you would always tell me of the time Allen was small and he ran to help a lady load her groceries in her car. That is Allen .*

Rest in Peace knowing you did a great job here on earth.

I know when you entered Heaven God said " Great job my child.

You will always remain in our hearts.

We love you Bob and Joyce

“ I was a caregiver to Miss Marjorie and to Tommy too. I sure do miss those times. Miss Marjorie and I would sing hymns together. I took my laptop to her house several times and played videos of me singing at different places and oh how she would just smile. AND she would sing along with them too. She would share stories with me all the time. I loved that. She would LAUGH so hard when I would say or do something funny. We share the same birth month and we would talk about that too. Sure will miss you Miss Marjorie!!!! You were such a HUGE Blessing to me!!!! You have NO idea how much "I" needed "you". I know you are "Singing With The Saints" right now. Love you Miss Marjorie. Love the family!!!!
