“ Years ago, I was told---”You can tell a Christian by the way they treat other people.” Martha Corbett was a quiet, unassuming woman who was gracious, thoughtful, caring, humble, courteous, appreciative, and benevolent. Armed with these traits, and a myriad of others, she loved our God and took care of His People. Martha Corbett was a Christian. I loved Martha and our “shared” Grand, and Great-Grand Children. I will miss her.
