“ Our deepest sympathy to you Gladys. You may remember us from Michigan. I worked with Marv at Ford Motor. We were, among many others, transplants from other Ford locations. We from Chicago, you from Atlanta. I enjoyed getting together with you and Marv. I know he will be sorely missed. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Betty and I are deeply saddened at Marvin's passing. He and Gladys are dear friends of ours since moving to Michigan when he worked at Ford. Marvin was my sons' Michigan grandpa.

Marvin was a hard worker, friendly to all, and a fine "Southern" gentleman. We shall miss him dearly.

God rest your soul, Marv. You've earned it.

Although I only knew Marvin for a few years (great years!) I have to say that he was one of the nicest, friendliest, most giving man I have known. His love for Gladys was so wonderful. I will always remember the twinkle in his eyes when they talked about all the places they visited, all the trips they took and all the fun they had together. Seeing two people who were so obviously still in love is a wonderful legacy and seeing the love for their family and friends is truly something to leave to all of us. Thank you Marvin and Gladys!
