“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ Mrs. Ellen was near and dear to me for nearly all my life. I have so many precious memories of vacations and just spending time together with her, Missy and Chris and Bro. Edgar when I was just a young girl. She was a faithful servant of the Lord. She was a lady of few words but her actions spoke volumes with her good deeds and the seeds of love that she planted during her life. She loved both her blood family and her church family and would sacrifice herself for either one of them. My heart breaks that she will no longer be here but my soul rejoices knowing she is at rest and peace in heaven.

Ms Ellen was my second Mother. I spent as much time at her house with my childhood best friend Missy- her daughter. I believe she loved me almost as much as my own Mother does! She was one of the most unselfish people I've ever known. She was a 'cool' Mom! There is no doubt she has made it 'home'! Those of us who had the joy of knowing her know that the home I speak of is Heaven as she was indeed a child of God! She will be greatly missed. I especially will miss her hugs! When she hugged you she just had a way of making it count! You just knew she loved you! I love you Ms. Ellen! I will see you again one day! Love and prayers, Regina Miller Westbrooks

I loved Uncle Edgar and Aunt Ellen. She was quiet, beautiful and the kindest, most caring and loving person and she loved the Lord dearly. A classy lady. Now she is gone but will never be forgotten. She is with Uncle Edgar and her loved ones who have gone before her and she has no more pain..

Melissa,

You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. My prayer is that all of you will feel God's presence surrounding you during this time and always and that He'll supply all that you need in the days ahead.

Love,

Lori Shirley
