“ There are a few patients that really touch my life and leave a enduring smile in my heart.. Mr. and Mrs. Christian were both those types of patients. I so enjoyed seeing them here at the clinic on Fridays. I always looked for their arrival and immediately went to speak with them. They always sat beside each other. Mr. Christian would talk and joke mischievously and Mrs. Christian would give him that loving, knowing look. So sweet.

*My condolences,
Traci Bryan, PharmD*

“ Sweet Nina & family, we sympathize with you during this difficult time. We know you were expecting your Mother to join your Father soon; however, it still hurts and we are so sorry for all of you. We have an appointment for our son during your visitation and will miss visiting you. So sorry. Sending our love and prayers and hope to visit you at home soon.
