Ann was determined and persistent in all that she did. She lived life fully and will be dearly missed by her family and many friends around the world. A reception and Celebration of Ann's life will be held from 4:00 until 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 3, 2019 at The Legends Clubhouse, Chateau Elan, Braselton. Casual dress is suggested. “ I just realized this is the Ann Couch that I met in Canada and played golf with. We both joined the American Women's Club and Newcomers and started playing golf about the same time. Ann was a fabulous cook and good friend. After our husbands were relocated to other areas we lost track of each other. Our deepest sympathy and condolences go out to the girls and Alan.

“ I loved our gourmet lunch club in Dayton. Great food and great fun. Ann was always up for the most challenging recipes. Also, loved playing golf together. Always thought we should have gotten together since we are so close. Please accept our sincere condolences. I know she is missed terribly.
