“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones.

“ So glad I stopped to speak to you and Mary recently at the post office. I told Mary that I always thought she was so pretty. I reminded them who my parents were and they remembered my daddy as "a good man". We attended church at First Baptist, went to school with Judy and Marshall. God bless this family. “ From the Florida Panhandle, we reach out to Hogan and Family, You are in our Thoughts. Just read of Mary's passing online. Hogan and Erskine grew up together on West Avenue and have kept in touch until the last couple of years. Mary and Hogan graduated with Erskine's Wife, who, Mary Wheeler Davis. We just wanted to reach out to all of you let you know we are thinking of you.
Erskine, who is hanging in there at 98, sends his deepest Sympathy to Hogan and all of you. He speaks of memories of Mary and Hogan frequently

“ To Hogan Ivey

Our thought and prayers are with you and your family in the loss of Mary. The great thing for us believer is we know where she is and know we will see her again soon.

We had a situation come up today that prevented us for attending her Services. We will do our best to get over to see you in a few days

*Wishing you love, light, and blessings always,
Love ye all

“ We have loved Mary and Hogan like family since we met them in 1973. We enjoyed many years of meeting in Gatlinburg, and we talk about the wonderful times we had together. It's sad to lose someone we love, but will always have the memories.

“ Ernest and I were just talking yesterday about Mary and Mr. Ivey. We were planning to go see them for it had been way too long. We have some very fond memories of our trips to Ashville for the Folk Music Festivals with them and the Israel's.
Our love, prayers and hearts are with each of you during this time.
God bless each of you.
