“ There are days that go by that I wish heaven had phones. You are so loved and missed daily. There isn't a day that goes by I don't think of you. Rather if it is something I remembered you did or your words of encouragement. I often find myself asking "what would mom do" and I simply reply 'yes mom I know" I know your up in the heavens watching over everyone you loved. Next month will be 5 years that you gained your wings, it seems like yesterday. The older I get the days go by faster and faster. I remember when daddy would tell me that "days are gonna fly by faster than you know it" I am also starting to have the same conversations with the girls that y'all once had with me. I am glad I eventually realized y'all's advice was right, and now I am giving the same advice to them. " I had great teachers" I love you so much mom and until we meet again watch over us!

Love,

Audry Johnson

“ I met Glenda when she was going through her divorce and we became fast friends. I'll never forget the time in the early 80s when she dressed up for Halloween as the devil, in a hot pink leotard with matching devil horns and tail! With her eyes twinkling, that mischievous grin, and her fiery red hair, she was certainly the belle of the Halloween Ball!

We had some hilarious experiences together as single ladies, especially the time we went to a party, not knowing it was a "swingers" party because we hadn't yet heard of the term. We were approached by a guy and his wife, and had a strange conversation with them. Boy, did we ever feel the dumbos when it dawned on us what they were asking! We slunk out of there in embarrassment.

Shortly after Glenda's marriage to Jack, I was transferred to a new job in Jacksonville, but we always kept in touch, having great times together again when she and Jack visited me in Jacksonville and later in Savannah when I retired there. Glenda and Jack were a great couple, and I am blessed to have known them.

“ I will certainly remember how much Glenda loved meeting for lunch and playing bunco. There were days when she didn't really feel good, but she would still come and play as long as she was able. Jack would drop her off and then come in with her oxygen tank. She sure loved that game! Perhaps she and Dot Oulette have started a bunco group in Heaven. I hope so.

“ We remember a happy day at our home . Morgan&Mary & Glenda came. We all had great fun talking about old times. We reconnected many years in those few hours. Glenda was an outgoing , lovely person. She loved her brothers and sisters and told many funny childhood stories. She was loved & will be missed by her extended family.
