“ Mary Ann, my friend for 80 years. You were one of my early friends as we entered first grade together at the old Smyrna Elementary - white frame building, located where Heritage High stands now. We have maintained contact thru the years, and enduring the ups and downs of life we could always count on seeing each other at Salem Camp Meeting, or some class reunions, or hair salons, etc. You were always the steadfast same Mary Ann with a large grinning smile for everyone. I'm notifying all our remaining classmates of your passing on to be with the Lord where the greatest physician of all, will see that you are completely healed. Thanks for the memories of a faithful friendship of 80 years. Your friend.... Jo Carter Harbin.
