someone I could always trust to steer me in the right direction. A beautiful lady inside and out , go rest high on that mountain, and give granddaddy a hug for me. Love you and miss you Mary Saffles....

“ Aunt Mary was always bigger than life to me, especially when I was a little girl and even a teenager. Her voice filled a room. Her laugh was contagious. And when she sang gospel hymns at family reunions with her mother and sisters, you didn't say a word. It was a powerful energy in that room. I'm so grateful that she was a part of my life. She taught me many lessons. And I remember when she represented Ester Lauder at Rich's. I thought she was the most glamorous person I knew. And she was. I have a picture in my mind of her and mom walking down a street downtown when they were about 20. I think they had been shopping. Both expecting their first babies. So pretty. And they had a double wedding in Michigan. Another picture of them and Grady and Dad standing out in the snow, I believe after their wedding. They were all so happy and beautiful. Sending love to Vicki and Debbie, and all of her grandchildren and loved ones. She was special to all of us. Until we all meet her again at Jesus feet. With love. ❤️ Carol

“ My Dad said, “Mary was a firecracker.” He was talking about how all the girls wanted to play with Mary when they were growing up. Of course they would. She was outgoing and fun to be around, never at a loss for words and always had the right ones. I can still see Mary laughing, and hear her singing along with the family around the piano at family reunions. Distances didn't allow me to see her often enough, especially in the last years, but, when I learned she was gone it felt like a disturbance in the universe. She was a blessing to our family. I love you Aunt Mary.

“ Aunt Mary, I love you and will miss our Thursday dates and listening to your stories about family! I wouldn't trade those times for anything in the world! You were more than my Aunt, you were my friend, my advisor and the best role model anyone could ask for. I'm praying for peace and comfort for Vickie, Debbie and all your family.

“ Heaven has a new angel, and our family has lost someone very special.... No matter what I say here, I can not fully tell anyone how much Aunt Mary meant to us.....One needs to know what all her family members say of her to understand, if that's possible Aunt Mary has been a steadfast guiding light to all of us younger ones over our entire lives, teaching us in her gentle way while wrapping us all in a warm blanket of love that never wavered, no matter the trouble life brought our way....she lived through the Great Depression and WW II.....two periods in her life that no doubt gave her the wisdom and patience to guide her children, grand children, nieces and nephews through our rough times.....her bacon and eggs were just the best thing in the morning when we visited, and her caring talks with me in the quiet of the night when my family last visited helped me through a very rough time of my life.....I bet the angels in Heaven aren't getting too much sleep these days.....Aunt Mary is reunited with my Mother and sister Ann and so many from her family.... there's a good ol' time goin' on up there Love you forever, Aunt Mary..... God bless

Vicki and Deb and all the family.....we send our love and support Andrew, Sarah, Terrie and Mike
