“ Max and I worked together at Schlotzsky's many years ago. I remember only good things about him: his kindness, humor, and his faith. He was such a great kid and I know he turned into a great man as well. I was at his funeral and since then have thought of him almost daily. Although we went years without speaking, his testimony and story has had a huge impact on me and I know he is with Jesus now. Many little things make me think of him and I just want his family to know that he had an impact on me and that I am blessed to have known him.

“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. Death is a terrible thing for anyone to experience. But what's comforting is God's word found in the bible at Rev. 21:3,4 where it reassures us that we will see our dead loved ones again.

“ Rest in Heaven, Max! He is so loved and will be missed by so many. It's nice to go to a funeral where family and friends can be "joyful" in knowing that their son/brother/friend is no longer struggling or in pain. I am so proud to have been able to get to know him years ago at Schlotzsky's, and i'm happy to hear that i will see his smiling face again in Heaven one day! I will be praying for you guys, no doubt and you will be on my heart.

“ Danny,my heart goes out to you and your family. Words cannot express my sorrow. We hope that as we have gotten older, that some things would get easier. This situation does not. Only the Grace of Jesus Christ can be the only thing that can go with you through this difficult time. I can't even imagine your hurt, but Jesus can. I pray that His Grace will be poured out on you,and your family. I pray that you will continue to look to Him for that grace. All my love and prayers to you. Love, Steve Helms

“ Max,

Words cannot describe how much you impacted my life and my recovery. I am a better man for having known you and walked with you through this seemingly difficult world. Even now, you inspire me to keep moving forward. Working with you gave me the opportunity to see God in another human being. There is no doubt you are with Him now.

“ I met Max in November when we were hired at Convergent. His smart and goofy personality won us all over. Even though I didn't know him long, his passing caught us way off guard and we are all still in shock. On behalf of his previous co-workers at Convergent and myself, we send our deepest condolences to his entire family. he will be missed very much! we are so sorry for your loss. our thoughts and prayers are with you, always.
