“ Pastor Brown became my Pastor in 1981. He was an incredible example of Christ-centered leadership. His love and concern for people was exceptional. I will always think of him as a faithful servant of God, always abounding in the work of the Lord. He was loved by so many people, and is already missed.

“ Bro. Merlin Brown was my pastor for many years, and was a blessing to me and my family. When he was no longer my pastor he remained my friend and encourager. I know I will see him with his big smile in heaven one day! I will miss his phone calls of encouragement. Maggie Bell
