“ Joanne...so sorry for your loss. Scot and I shared some special moments that I will value forever. Scot was very much devoted to you and his children. The energy Scot possessed was a strength that was contagious to those in Scots circle.

“ Met Scot the summer befor 6th grade when we moved to Rockdale County. From 7th grade through high school we were in home room together every year and went to church together as well. Was always a great guy. I remember seeing him run all over town for cross country. Though time and life had separated us, we reconnected through FaceBook. God’s peace and comfort to his family.

“ Scot's birth brought great joy to our Phillips family. He was the first grandchild and his aunts first nephew. His Papa Phillips was so excited to have a grandson after raising four daughters! We adored him. However, we are at peace knowing that he has been welcomed to his heavenly home by Jesus, his Dad, Nanny and Papa and all of his other loved ones. His mind and body have been restored to perfection and that beautiful smile is once again returned to his face. I am sure that he has already begun his new job of guarding and protecting his wonderful family from above.
