“ I had the honor of meeting Mike last year when he came into a doctor's office that I worked for. The initial meeting was when he phoned for an appointment. I would have to say that it was one of those divine appointments orchestrated by God because he felt comfortable enough to open up a bit to me about how he was feeling spiritually and he was a bit discouraged. I encouraged him and shared God's word with him. His mood lightened and he thanked me. I say this was a divine appointment because at that the time of his call, I was the only one at the front desk and where the phones are usually ringing off the hook, at the time this call took place the phones stayed silent and we talked for at least 20 min. Apparently his spirit needed to hear what I had to say. I was not in the office the day of his appointment, so I didn't get the chance to meet him personally then. About a week later when I heard that he had been admitted to the hospital, I was led to pay him a visit. I brought him a book of God's promises for men and we chatted. I learned a lot about him that day and the greatest thing that I can say is that he was a kind , humble man. He loved his family and his friends fiercely and was willing to help people whenever he could. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to meet him and am so very sad that this was his end. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family & friends and I pray, above all, that he had a beautiful journey home. Rest in peace....

“ Mike was a great man and a wonderful friend to me. He would always tell the best stories and both of my boys would sit and listen to him for hours because they loved his stories and they really looked up to "Big Mike" (that's what they always called him). He would always try to make them understand and believe that money can not and will not ever bring anyone happiness. We will all miss him & his stories so much. I will continue to pray for Mikey, Jack, & Michaela, as well as all that were close to Mike, that they look to the Lord for comfort thru this tragic time. Mike, I love you (like a big brother or an uncle I never had) may you Rest in Peace & be at ease from all the heavy worries of the world.

“ Fond memories of our (Dan and Anita Headstream) friendship with Mike: We loved hitting the road with Mike and Sandra, sometimes with the kids and other times just the grown-ups. Trips with the kids were always a blast: Vera Beach, Florida ... Free 3-night stay in a beachfront condominium (Mike and Dan were hilarious during the required time share presentation). Disney World, Orlando, Florida! Christmas at PTL... Gorgeous! ...never had to worry about the kids. Grown up trips to the Grand Canyon (flying through the canyon) and Hawaii (bike riding down Mt. Haleakala; snorkeling off a sailboat when Sandra baited the waters with food around Mike causing a feeding frenzy of fish in Mike's face! We think he walked on water back to the boat! Watching Mike get a rose tattoo on his forearm...quite a show, ouch!). Also, so many Mike-isms: "jap-slap, cats-head-biscuits, 'holidays' on the wall after helping us paint, patrolling-the-perimeter, and 'lay out a fleece' before God." We love you, Mike, and we'll see you in heaven!
