“ I'll never forget this funny, amazing man. No matter the hardship, he put on a smile. While our visits weresadly few, they were all memorable, mostly because they were full of laughs, family stories and lots of giving each other a hard time. Thankfully, AJ bore the brunt of that.. one of the perks of being married into a family. We will never, ever forget you Uncle Mike. RIP

My favorite memory of Mike was the year he worked as Santa Clas at Green Acres Mall in NY. I brought my niece and nephew to see him and he wouldn't talk to them for fear they would recognize his voice. My niece kept staring at him and afterwards told me that wasn't Santa, that was your friend Mike. When I told Mike we had a good laugh! Rest In Peace Mike!
