“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ I'm gonna miss Mikey coming over with some oxtails so that Mom could cook them 😊 He would stay in the kitchen with mom as she cooked them. I'm gonna miss Mikey's smile, his laughter, and his spirit in general. I remember when we came to Mikey job and somebody didn't have their ID n the bouncers were giving trouble until Mikey came n said we're his people. We all entered n had a great time. R.I.P cousin. Love n blessings.

“ I was just sitting in my bedroom looking out my window at my old house across the way remembering the many, many times Mike would get of the bus and come into the house to visit with my family when he was still in high school. All of a sudden I realized.... I was in Mike's old bedroom, looking out Mike's window at my old house. I now live in the house that Mike lived in the early nineties. I would usually have dinner ready when my children got home from school and I always made Mike feel welcome to have a little bit with us. Granite, it was just an appetizer for him as his father would have an enormous Panamanian dinner ready for him by 6pm. Our favorite meal was mac & cheese with spinach so we would have it two or three times a week. Mike would always ask, "Where's the meat?" I tried to explain several times that there was protein in the cheese, but when I finally realized that he was always going to ask I began just responding with a smile. After we ate we would play games or he would get down on the floor and play with cars or soldier men with my younger sons. He would also take time to play with my baby grandson! I 'adopted' Mike and he was a protector and 'big brother' to my children long before I had any idea that one day I would marry his father.

Mike grew up to be a wonderful father! I never knew any man who was as good a father as Mike. I would complement him often on what a GREAT father he was and what a GREAT job he was doing! I miss him so much. It doesn't seem real. My heart is aching. I remember the last time I saw him. I remember our last hug. I will always remember him and our hugs.
