

Millard Eugene Clark

December 29, 1946 - April 26, 2020

Millard Eugene Clark was born the son of Cyrenus Eugene Clark and Alice Findley Clark. He is survived by his brother David Lee Clark (Snellville) and was predeceased by his older sister, Sharon Clark Olthof. The family grew up in Savannah with Millard graduating from Jenkins High School, in 1964. He played high school basketball and played the clarinet in the school band. He got his BS and MBA degrees at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina. He spent 20 years in Manhattan as an expediter for Jones Construction company and then as a bartender; he was also an assistant manager for Red Lobster restaurant. After moving to the Atlanta area and joining the Bill Wilson Organization, for the last 30 years, he worked for the Georgia Department of Education and then developed his own organization of Atlanta Web Pro for web design. Millard was a member of the NRA and included guns and fly-fishing as his hobbies. Millard's other love was dogs, his first being Casey, a German Shepherd and Pierre, a Catahoula who has survived his 'daddy's' death and gone to live with Millard's friend Ed and Pierre's 'cousins.' Millard will be cremated and buried at Bonaventure Cemetery living amongst the live oaks and next to the Atlantic Intracoastal Waterway. Millard died suddenly on April 26 after a three-year bout with cancer. Condolences may be submitted on-line at www.scotward.com. Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Rd., Conyers, GA, 770-483-7216.

“ Rest eternal grant to him, O Lord;
And let light perpetual shine upon him.
May his soul, and the souls of all the departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

“ I know you are at peace now. I am thankful you are flying free of any pain. Thank you for reaching out to me and my family and the wonderful visit. My mom loved your new car!
She said it was so pretty, I'll always remember her telling you that! GOD BLESS YOU. Cathy S Hood

“ My family and I are deeply saddened by the passing of our cousin. I so enjoyed our early visits with him and his Aunt Marie and family. I know he is flying high with his sister, Sharon. I named by daughter after her, she was a loving, kind soul that we all loved too. Delores S Sloan

“ I am so sorry to hear of Millard's passing. We went to Jenkins and Armstrong together. Millard and I bantered on Facebook and we laughed that we would always be friends because we were both going to be buried at Bonaventure. Millard was a kind gentle friend who only deserved the best. See you one day.

i'm so sad to hear that Millard(Fred) is no longer with us. We shared many fun times at HVJ. Regrettably I did not keep in touch like I should have, but caught glimpses on Facebook. My condolences to Millards family, including Pierre, and to all who knew him.

Millard was a fellow Friend of Bill who helped locate and run a couple meetings in SE Atlanta. He will be remembered, and he will be missed. He helped people get and stay sober, no small thing.
