Jenny this is your friend from Florida. I will miss our conversations. When I met you on our tour to Atlanta to sing when I checked into the hotel I didn't meet a stranger you looked at me as we had known each other for a long time you welcomed me to your city. I met you just as we were faced with thus pandemic we stayed in touch you text me often aslo we talked regularly. You were always positive even when you were faced with cancer. I thank you for being a long distance friend. One thing for for you knew God and you had ask God for repentance often said you didn't want to live in this mean world when God was ready for you, you would be ready. I will miss your calls your quite voice most of all your bright smile. Get your rest now servent of God well done you fought a good fight you kept the faith. My deepest sympathy to the entire family. Love Carolyn your friend from the sunshine state of Florida. I'm so hurt I didn't get a chance to say good bye to hold your hand. Until we meet I9ve always “ Words cannot adequately express all that is in my heart right now. Jennie always was full of life. I never thought I'd see this day. The Green/Pugh family is our family. We've always felt that way. What a great loss. I pray that GOD'S Peace and Comfort are constantly with you during this season of loss. Family know that you are sincerely loved and prayed for.

“ I just don't know where to begin. My heart broke when I realized it was Jenny that I was reading about. Jenny and I are first cousins. The thing that made me read the obituary was the name, Mozelle Virginia which was our grandmother and aunt's name. I am still at a lost for words. Jenny was such a sweet and loving person. I remember playing together as children. My deepest condolences to her daughter and family. I will keep praying for you. Deborah Green Striggles

“ My Family grew up..in our teenage years..with Jenny and her Family. We've been speaking of how We thought We were a part of Her Family. Losing Jenny hit Us so very hard. We Prayed and Wanted other results; but, We Praise The Lord for knowing this Beautiful Young Lady. Family..We send Our Condolences and Pray You Peace during this Storm of Bereavement. Our Sister is at Peace now..Jenny is just fine and resting over on the other shore. We have to make Peace and deal with Our emotions as We continue Our Journey without Our Loved One. Live as if to make Jenny proud and Serve The Lord. We have missed You over the years since You moved away..and, we are surely gonna miss You now. Rest easy Jenny. Your Other Family..The Henderson's
