Kwame and Ebony since we visited so briefly at the crib side on the sad morning of Nakeba's passing I have held those moments your sadness in my prayers for you, before our heavenly father's throne of grace! As sure as the hollow vacuum of her loss still lives so painfully within your hearts; we know that death can claim no dominion over the beauty God gave us in her short life. May He bless you in your sorrow and give you peace in the days ahead. Chaplain Cecil Goodroe
