“ So saddened to read of Nancy's death in the AJC this morning. We were competitors until I joined The McGraw-Hill Companies. We shared a friendly respect for each other as competitors but were both happy when we ended up working for the same company. Sue Troff

“ Nancy & I grew up together in Monroe and were members of the First Methodist Church where we attended Sunday School and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Nancy was a smart, intelligent student, always seeking the answers to questions many of us had never thought about asking. She was a loyal friend and classmate. Her family were long-time members of the Methodist Church with her sister, Dianne, serving as President of the MYF group during her senior year. I have wonderful memories of Nancy back during those years. My sincere sympathy to the family in the loss of one so very special.
