

Neal Kramber

May 4, 1982 - February 12, 2022

Neal Kramber, age 39 of Conyers, died Saturday, February 12, 2022 after a short battle with COVID. He is survived by his parents, Cary and Denise Kramber; brother Eric Kramber (Melanie); nephew, William Kramber; and his beloved yellow lab, Riley. Neal played soccer with Rockdale Youth Soccer Assoc. and Heritage High School. Neal graduated from Heritage High School in 2000. After graduation, Neal went on to become an accomplished pilot. He was a certified flight instructor and became a commercial Captain (age of 28) flying jets all over the world. He hunted with his dad, fished with his family, rode his motorcycle and off-road ATV, restored old tractors, and flew his multi-engine Cessna 310. He loved the outdoors, but his ultimate passion was flying. The family will receive family and friends Friday, February 18, 2022 from 5 to 7 at the funeral home and again Saturday, February 19, 2022 from noon - 1 PM. This will be followed by a memorial service to be held in the chapel at the funeral home. If you would prefer to make a donation in lieu of flowers, please make donations to NORD (National Organization of Rare Diseases) at <https://rarediseases.org/donate/>. Condolences may be submitted on-line at www.scotward.com. All services to be held at Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699 American Legion Rd., Conyers, GA, 770-483-7216

“ Neal also was a CDL driver who delivered truck loads of HVAC materials to areas all over the state of Ga ,this was his second love ,Trucks Trailers an Equipment. Cary his father realized there was a huge disconnect on the custom made sheetmetal parts needed to do the correct install to many Commercial an Residential jobs . That is where I come in Danny Haun who now carries on the duties of shipping an delivery of materials that they fab an pkg an ship. Neal was the n in CEN an will be missed !

“ I don't have many videos of Neal, but this one is precious to me as it shows just how he just loved to tease and play around with my and Eric's son, William, taken about 4 1/2 years ago. We love you Neal and will miss you greatly.
