“ My aunt Norma was a beautiful woman. When I was little and she'd come home (my nanny's) she always wore bright red lipstick and looked glamorous. She always paid a lot of attention to me. I went to visit her and uncle Glen in GA when I was around 8 or 9 for a couple weeks. She'd take me to her jazzercise classes and she'd show me off to everyone she knew. When I was 18 I moved to Atlanta and she and I talked almost every night for at least an hour. I was blessed to see her the weekend of her passing and got the chance to tell her every single memory of her and I that I had. I was able to see and tell her I loved her. I've read all the other memories everyone has shared and I'm so grateful she had so many walking angels watching over her all these years. Thank you everyone for loving her just the way she was. She was my aunt and she was a wonderful woman. ❤️

“ Norma came in the Waffle House that I use to work at daily. We became friends. She always asked about my girls and husband, by name! I took her a pair of shoes one of my girls refused to wear and Norma loved them. After that she would ask me if my girls had anymore tennis shoes they didn't want. Even if they did not, I would go buy her a pair and tell her they were from them. It was the only way I could get her to take a new pair! Every holiday I would take her a plate of food from my family gatherings. She would not attend with me but loved what I would take her. In fact she reached the point she would ask when my momma was going to make more cornbread dressing. Of course it would be made right away. The only times she would allow me to drive her home is when the weather was really bad. I miss seeing her out walking and I miss our long chats! She was a very intelligent and caring lady ❤️
