“ I worked with Norman many years at Bellsouth. What a sweet, kind, fun, and loving man. He was my friend, and I'm so very sad to hear of his passing. God bless his family and friends.

“ Norman was a dear man to me. We became fast friends when he first came to Alcovy UMC because of our mutual love for music. I played for him when we talked him into doing a solo at church...Someone Who Cares. He often sent poetry to me and was very supportive during the time of my husband's illness and subsequent death. He will always hold a special place in my heart.

*His voice is stilled,
But not for long,
He's singing in Heaven..
He's now at home.*

And, no, Norman , I do not have your poetic talent, just lots of love for a dear friend.

*Love your friend,
Lil*
