

Orville McKinley

November 26, 2025

Orville McKinley lived a life that enjoyed the beauty of nature, the love of family and the energetic friendship of his tribe. This beautiful human being was born to Joannette and Outon McKinley on October 18, 1975. Orville had the pleasure of being the only boy of four sisters. He was deeply loved by his sisters: Grace Brock, Judith Bell, Janique Dunn and Andrea McKinley.

Orville shared his passion for the beauty of the morning sunshine, the joy of physical movement, his love for people with his family of aunts, grandparents, nieces and nephews. If there was a family gathering, game or opportunity to show kindness, he was there.

In addition to his family, Orville shared life events and the spiritual truth that he believed with many close friends, associates and strangers. Orville was able to face each problem as an opportunity for growth with a word of encouragement. He left this earth on November 26, 2025, with a reminder to us that life is too short not to live your truth.
