*Pat,
Thank you for everything. You were my manager and mentor as I worked and learned under you at Vitamin World. I cannot ever express how grateful I am to be able to have met and learned from you ma'am. I still have the book you gave me on my birthday, "the game of life and how to play". Thank you for that. I always looked to you like a mother.*

*I love you Pat,

“ I remember the Santa picture you colored for our third grade art contest, the little things you did over the years to make me smile, our fun trip with the kids to Niagara Falls, and most of all your kind, compassionate heart so full of love. My thoughts are now with your loving husband Ed, and your family during, I know that life will be difficult without you.

“ Such a kind, sweet Christian lady. I have known Mrs. Farmer, Ed & her kids most of my life. She & Ed were very close to my parents and they did many things together in addition to being church buddies. She & Ed always came to the crazy, fun Flanagan annual Christmas parties. May the perpetual light shine upon Pat & may her soul rest in peace. Sending love & prayers to her family. God Bless!

“ Don't remember where this photo was taken. We met for lunch, something we did often, & had a fun time. This is one of my favorite photos of Pat taken Dec. 1, 2006. I will miss our lunches. I will miss our chats. Pat, I know you were escorted by angels & welcomed home by Jesus. Pray for us as we continue to pray for you.

My deepest sympathy. As you know the world was a better place with her in it. Her spirit and love of life will be sorely missed! Not everyone shines so brightly. Eddie, please let me know if there's anything I can do. Again, I'm so sorry for your loss.

Pat and Ed showed their love openly for each other, and made no bones about their belief in Spirit, each other, the goodness of mankind, that we are made of love and light and courage. They made me feel like I was a personal friend, the way they treated me with kindness and love, concern and joy at my visits with them. Her wisdom, which baffled me, encouraged me to learn more about things in the world, and to know myself. I'm blessed to have known them both.

To everyone that was or wasn't able to be at my Pat's good-bye, I just wanted to thank-you for the love that you showed to her and me. She loved everybody as no one that I have ever known before. Thank you again for everything signed Ed Farmer
