“ I got to know Payton and Rick this year as they came almost daily, to check on their little brother Gabriel. Sometimes they were together, just getting to school in the morning, but often Payton would pop in during a hall break just to make sure his brother was safe and well and behaving.

One of the joys of working with little ones is discovering the love in families and your boys share that love everyday as they look out for each other. Now Payton will be doing that work from a much better vantage point!

Truly, I have no words of my own that will offer much comfort, but it occurs to me that our God does, so I will leave you with His: "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death ... Thou art with me..."

My continuing prayers are added to so many others for your family, not just today, but always.

“ Payton I never met you. I wish I had. I know sweetie that you were your Mama's heart and that her heart now breaks into tiny pieces. I pray that God will hold her, your dad and your family so close in his loving arms as they learn to live life without you 💔💔💔
