“ A sad, sad time for longtime residents in Starr Subdivision, Conyers, GA. who knew and loved Peggy AND for those who have moved away during the past few years. I am a former next door neighbor and the longest "resident" in our "circle" and have known Peggy and her late husband Gordon since we broke ground for our house here in 1966....some 57 years ago! A righteous woman, beautiful soul, a loving heart and the BEST of neighbors. She brought joy to all who knew her and I love her very much. I have missed her so much since she moved away from Conyers about three years ago, and as I said to someone after hearing of our loss, quote: "If they have subdivisions in Heaven, I sure hope I am lucky enough to get a place next door to her and Gordon!" God bless you my sweet friend....may you rest in eternal peace. May He stay close to your precious family and comfort them during this sad time and in the future.
