“ I was very sad to read of Pete's passing. He and I taught for the Dept. of Juvenile Justice at Paulding Regional Detention for Youth in Dallas, Ga. from 2011-13. Under difficult, if not sometimes chaotic and dangerous circumstances, Peter was always a calming presence. His maturity and humor could always be counted on in spite of our almost daily ordeals of student misbehaviors and the atmosphere of violence that permeates DJJ detention centers throughout our state. Our lunches together were moments of respite that allowed for we teachers to share stories of family, love of music and comradeship with one another that he recounted in his book "Flexin' in Hell". I'm forever grateful to Pete for his jazz compilations on CD's (at least seven) he made just for me. Miles Davis, Sonny Stitt and Chet Baker are now part of my regular listening pleasures thanks to Pete Berrall. The world has lost a generous and kind gentleman I was lucky enough to call my friend. Most Sincerely,
Damon DiPietro (Mr. D)
