“ I have known the Dooly family all of my life. They were a special part of my memory's growing up. My grandmother, Maude Lowry, and my mama, Hazel Lowry, always took me to the Dooly house to visit Sara Dooly. And then they would take me to the cloth store that Mrs. May Crawford had next door to the Dooly house. Mrs. May was Phillip's grandmother. They were all so special to me. Gay Dooly became my best friend when I was a teenager. We would go to Athens to the Varsity all the time. When I was a teenager, Mrs. Sara Dooly got me to roll and style her hair every week. She said that I did it better than the place that she went to in Conyers. I loved this whole family. Phillip and Marvin always picked on me in a nice way every time I saw them. They were well behaved children. They were raised by good parents. He will be missed. Even though I didn't get to see him but once or twice a year, I will miss him very much. I am praying for his family. Phillip has a wonderful, and very friendly wife and children. I know that he is with our Lord and that he is happy. I know that you will miss him everyday, but just know that you will see him again.

“ As I reflect on our friendship over the last 20+ years, I smile. We were introduced through work and over time our business relationship developed into a friendship. You will be dearly missed. Our family will honor your wishes and make a donation to Milstead Baptist Church in honor of you. Your family will be kept in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

I so heart broken by the news of Phillips passing. Worked with him for over 23 years. Learned so much from him...from cars, softball, work and compassion. Phillip helped me out during a dark time in my life by being there to listen, talk and offer loving advise. Sending all my love and sympathy to the family and friends of Phillip "Flop" Dooley

We will miss him dearly :(

I was a student of Mr. Dooley before he passed, I found out through other students whose parents saw an email sent by our school. He was a great teacher and he will be missed.

“ Phillip has always felt like a big brother to me in many ways. Unfortunately we seldom saw each other after our childhood and teen years. Life has a way of doing that sometimes to even the closest of friends. And that we definitely were once upon a time. I remember always looking up to him like you would an older brother. Looking back, I realize I learned a lot from Phillip in those early years. His sense of humor ,and sense of fairness , was something he was just born with.

Back in the day , it seemed like every opportunity I could get, I was down "in the country", across that Yellow River , with my second family the Dooleys. We roamed the fields, woods, rocks, creeks , and played from sun up to sun down . And there was never a dull moment with "Uncle " Paul," Aunt " Sara, Gay, Tony, Marvin(who btw will always be Duggar to me) , and of course Phillip. I would not trade that time in my life with Phillip and his family for anything. Rest in peace brother ...

“ Judy, Julie, Ashlie, and family, words cannot express the sorrow that is in my heart today for your loss. We mourn our loved one because of the loss that we are feeling not having them here, but we rejoice in knowing that Phillip is no longer suffering. Most of all we rejoice and celebrate his going home to be with our Lord and Savior. Even though I only had the pleasure of knowing Phillip and being in his Sunday School class for three years, he was such an inspiration to me. It did not take but one Sunday School lesson in his class to know that he was a child of God, and he would always include the awesomeness of our God and the question, "Are you ready when God calls you home". I know without a doubt that Philip was ready and when he was absent from that body, he was in the presence of our Lord. I especially remember his wonderful sense of humor. He was always joking with me about my Clemson Tigers and he loved to tease me about them losing a game, even though they had won. May God be with you during this time and continue to give you peace and comfort. You will always be "my Milstead Family"! Nell Simmons
