“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones.

“ Stoni, Lisa and Ginny, There are no words to express what we're feeling right now. We loved Rachel like a member of our own family. She was always happy and would light up our home everytime she walked in the door. I loved seeing her and Luke together. That's when he was the happiest! I know from conversations with Rachel, that you're a family that loves the Lord and knows this is where your strength will come from during this unimaginable time. I pray that He overflows your lives with comfort and peace beyond our understanding. Please let us know if you need anything. Love, the Tolleson family

“ Rachel Wall was my childhood best friend. We grew up together in our elementary school years. Rachel's mom and my mom took turns taking us to practice. we would be on separate sides of the field, and make faces at each other. Rachel and I always told secrets in her "secret room" upstairs. I have so many more memories with this beautiful girl. I am truly heartbroken, however I praise God for the moments I got to spend with her. Every second I was with her, she had an impact on my life. To Mr. And Mrs. Wall, you raised such a free spirited, intelligent, beautiful, and genuine girl. I am praying for you in this time of healing. In times of doubts, anger, and complete loneliness, God is perfect and so are his ways. Rachel will never be in pain or feel hurt or feel alone ever again, she is in a perfect place. Knowing that gives me a little more peace. Knowing that she is happy. I know that I will make an effort to be more like Rachel and never been seen without a huge smile on my face. I love you RMW. Romans 8:38-39. Psalm 23:4. ❤️ Praying for your comfort, hearts, and a hedge of protection around your family.
