“ Randall was not only a wonderful friend but family(and my gay husband) lol we joked about that a lot and we laughed and talked about life and people. He was my late night laughs and always there tackle my vehicle repairs with me. We worked well together. Words cannot even begin to tell,you how much he cared for and did for my mama and pop. I am going to miss him so much! We never got to go to the place we spoke of but when I do go I know he's gonna be right there with me. I love you brother and I feel so blessed to have had you in my life even,of it was for only a moment in time. Thank you!

“ Almost 8 years ago, Randall was one of the first people to welcome us to the neighborhood when we moved to Sugar Creek Farms, little did we know at that time, he would become part of our family. I can remember evenings when we got together for cookouts at Kaye & Randy's, we would sit on their back porch, get the giggles and laugh until tears ran down our face. As the years passed, the more intertwined our lives became and he was just a permanent member of every event at our home as well as Kaye and Randy's. If you saw one of us, you saw all of us, no matter who's home we were at. We were a clique. Scott and Dee were a big part of our gatherings also until they moved. There are just too many memories to share. He house sat for us when we went on vacations and took care of our 3 cocker spaniels, who he loved as much as us and they loved him. A piece of our heart has now gone with him. The heartache will linger, but we are thankful for the memories we have, those special doors that we can open and visit in our minds and remember, linger on as long as we need to cherish the time God allowed us to have him as part of our family and life. We are blessed to have known him, to have been able call him a neighbor, friend and brother. May he rest easy now, enjoy the riches of heaven, run freely down those street's of gold, meet family and friends gone before him and be there to greet those of us as we enter those gates into heaven one day. We love you Randall and we will never forget the impact you had on our lives. This is not goodbye, but see you again one day soon.

Love you,

Sis & Dale
