“ my daughter and I met Rayma on our first night visiting Zion Baptist Church. Our Methodist church just down the street from Zion had discontinued its Sunday night service so we went to Zions' night service. Rayma greeted us and invited us to sit with her. It was immediately obvious that this was no ordinary woman. I thought how outwardly beautiful she was and even more so how her inward beauty lit up a room. The Lord Jesus in her life could not have been hidden if she tried. His light shown so brightly in her. After a few months of attending the night services Rayma invited us to her birthday celebration where she introduced us to friends and family. I will always remember this great woman and how she carried her Bible with such love for Gods' word. I came across her obituary just now on July7th even though she passed on June 17th. To the family I would like to say what a wonderful, loving, caring woman of God Rayma was and know you will miss her earthly presence but how sweet to know she has gained that Heavenly Home. I know her rewards are great and she has and will be laying many crowns at her Saviors feet. Thank you for your kindness and witness, you will not be forgotten.

Sincerely In HIS love, Cheryl P. Lockett
