The Measure of a Man

Not how did he die? But how did he live?

Not what did he gain? But what did he give?

These are the units to measure the worth of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not what was his situation, but had he a heart and did he play his God given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer,
to bring back a smile, to brandish a tear?

Not what was his church? Nor what was his creed?
But has he befriended those really in need?

Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
but how many were sorry when he passed away?

“ Uncle Raymond you are going to be missed very much, we all loved you so greatly. I know you were not a hugging type person so whenever I was able to get in a hug I jumped on it, and I will treasure all my hugs and I Love you’s forever. You sure did raise the bar for all the uncle’s out there because I don’t think there will ever be a greater uncle than you.. I love you and miss you already.. REST IN PEACE

I will always love you and will miss you every day. You were there for us while we were growing up. You made sacrifices for your younger siblings that went beyond normal care for us. Also you helped us and our families as adults. You will be in our hearts forever. You were one the best men that I have ever known. I truly believe our Lord judges us by the love and actions for others. Rest In Peace my wonderful and caring brother. Martha Jones April 20, 2022

Raymond I am going to miss you so much. I love you and your kindness, you were always there for my family and everyone else. My family will take a piece of your loving memory with them forever. Randy praises you for all your help in getting him where he is today, thank you. Thank you for being like a father to your younger siblings. Vickie and Tracy's children and grandchildren loved spending time with you too. "Little Leland said Uncle Meymond (that's how he pronounced Raymond) is the smartest man.
