“ Keith I'm so sorry for your lost. I know I lost contact with you and everyone over the years but I still remember that you and Ronda were always some of my best friends. I remember how Ronda was always smiling and always found the best I everyone that she met. She will be missed so very much by all her friends and family.

“ You were a wonderful co-worker and friend back at Tucker Federal S & L for many years. I'm just so sad that we lost touch over the years. However, when we found each other again 2 years ago, it was as if no time had passed and I treasure the day we spent at lunch with you and your daughter. I will miss you terribly but I will treasure our friendship forever.

“ Rhonda was always smiling. Although our children made our paths cross her being is always with us. She was always sweet, had a kind word and smiled, laughed . She is leaving a hole in our hearts. GOD bless all that had the honor to meet and know her. The boatright family
