“ I have fond memories of Bob, as I got to know him over the last couple years. I was fortunate to spend Christmas dinner last year with him and the family. Bob treated me like an old friend from the start. His family is wonderful in that they make you feel included and comfortable immediately. Bob and I talked a lot at family dinners and when I drove by the house, I would see him in the yard. Bob would look up and wave as if he knew it was me. Prayers to Bob's family and prayers to Bob for a peaceful rest in heaven.
