“ Robert was one unique individual. He lived his life on his terms. I have not yet met anyone else who played as hard and had so much fun. What was unique is that he was also caring. He was always there for his friends.

It was a privilege to have known Robert.

I'm sorry for your loss, Marjorie

“ To my friend of over 20 years, From the first time I met you and got to know you, you never changed you were always highly motivated, tenacious, wide ass open, caring, and above everything you were honest. Nobody should ever ask you if they did not want to hear the answer. You have taught me so much and will never forget the impact you have had on my life. You have been a brother to me and love you for that and will miss you until we meet again.

“ Our world has lost something unique while Heaven gained by our loss. If I knew you at all, you were in Heaven thirty minutes before the devil even knew you were gone !

“ To my husband, confidant and love of 33 years. The time has flown by us and I would not have missed a minute of the love and laughter we shared. You are truly the funniest, craziest man I have ever met and I got to see and hear all of it. Your sense of humor could never be matched and I think we played well together. We had so much fun in our marriage and your laughter was infectious. I miss you so much already. I know that Fancy was there to meet you by the gate just like we always talked about and you are there laughing with your Mom and Dad. I will miss you and love you forever. It was love at first sight for us and we were a near perfect match. I know you are smiling at me just as you have everyday since we met and probably making fun of me right now. Love you!
