“ Barbara, Robbie, and Lori, we extend our sincerest condolences over the passing of your beloved husband and father Roger, and we pray God will comfort and strengthen you in the days ahead. Roger was a good friend, hard worker—and if we remember correctly—a man who wanted a big rock in his front yard. We cherish the memories of the good times shared with you, among others, camping at Vogel State Park, visiting San Francisco, and going to Benihani’s at Christmas. May these and other treasured memories help to ease your sorrow and lighten your grief. With much sympathy and love, Ronald and Jewel

“ We enjoyed our time in Georgia and meeting Roger and Barbara. On the day we moved from Georgia to back home, Roger helped us load our things in a U-Haul and gave my husband a silver dollar to remember him by with the instructions to me to not let him spend it. We really enjoyed meeting and spending time with Roger and Barbara. I know he will be greatly missed by his family

“ I can still picture Roger coming to my aid when I was a new Delta "redcoat" at the ATL airport years ago. His smile and guidance were so helpful to me as we worked through some issues with a delayed flight. I've never forgotten that situation. Godspeed, Roger!

We met Roger, Barbara and Robbie in 1972 when we were lucky enough to move in next door to them. Better people and neighbors are very, very rare. We shared many good times with them as our boys grew into the fine men they are today. My fondest memory of Roger was him in the back yard working his garden and LOUDLY singing Willy Nelson's songs. We moved after about 20 years to Stockbridge and still had occasion contact with them, but looking back not enough. We hope he has a garden in heaven with always enough rain. With tears in our eyes, we are praying for Barb and the family. We will see him again in heaven someday.

Roger was a very special person to me. Worked yeears with Roger side by side as Red Coats.

Early 70's..

Roger hope you have forgiven me and Mike Loyd..

We three went downtown ATL to the old Munciple Auditorium to watch GA Championship Rassling.

There was a guy out side the auditorium selling bags of roasted peanuts. Roger wanted to buy a bag but we told him that they were cheaper inside the building. Roger said OK.

Needless to say the bag of peanuts were 25 cents more and after Roger cooled down, us three had a good laugh.

Will miss you buddy..The best to your family..
