“ You were the strongest and most honorable man I've ever known. You were always there when I needed you. I learned my morals in life from you n aunt linda, also from you I learned that regardless how bad a situation there's always a positive. I didn't spend enough time with you while you were here for that im forever sorry. But no matter how much time n space went between us you, your love and lessons have always and will always be in my heart.. Its still so surreal to me, i love you.. Miss u until I see you again...R.I.P love always

“ You were one of the sweetest, most gentle cousins. You would do anything to help anyone. As a young girl I remember your warm smile and quiet nature. You were an amazing father, a loving husband and a beautiful soul. Rest now sweet cousin. Love Gina
