

Ronnie LaDon Bush, Sr.

December 14, 1948 - May 25, 2026

Today, we honor the life of Ronnie Landon Bush, Sr. - a son, a husband, a father, a grandfather, a great-grandfather, a veteran, & above all, a man of God.

Ronnie was born December 14, 1948, in Blakely, GA. He served his country in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War from 1970 to 1972, & was awarded the National Defense Service Medal. He carried that sense of duty & faithfulness his entire life.

But Ronnie's true calling was not just serving his country - it was serving God. He was a preacher. He loved the Word, especially the books of Acts & Revelations - the story of the church & the promise of how it all ends. He believed God is faithful, salvation is real, & this life is not the end.

He lived his faith as a husband to Reta, as a father, & as "Pappi" to his grandchildren & great-grandchild. He didn't just talk about faith - he walked it.

He leaves behind his wife, Reta Rae Bush; his children, Angel Grace Duke & Jeff Duke, Ronnie Landon Bush, Jr. & Melanie Bush, Benjamin Jacob Bush & Margaret Bush, & Crystal Marcum & Daniel Marcum; his grandchildren, Mason & Vikki Duke, Bentley, Bailey, Madelyn, Rori, Levi, & Harper; & his great-granddaughter, Millie Duke.

If Ronnie were here today, he wouldn't want this to be about him. He would want it to be about God's faithfulness.

The man who loved to sing "Victory in Jesus" is now living it.

"Well done, good & faithful servant."

“ Reta,

I was so sorry to read the sad news about Ronnie in yesterday's Albany Herald. Although we now live in Charleston, we still subscribe to the Herald to keep up with news from our hometown.

It was inspiring to read about Ronnie's wonderful life and the many lives he touched over the years.

I know I join his many longtime friends in Albany in keeping you and your family in our thoughts and prayers during the difficult days ahead.

I hope that one day our paths may cross again.

With deepest sympathy,

Walt Green
