

Rosemary Bowman

March 14, 1930 - January 1, 2012

ROSEMARY SILVA BOWMAN, born on March 14, 1930, passed on Sunday, January 1, 2012. She was born in Honolulu, Hawaii to Louis Kalani Silva and Luluhia Helene Wond. Rosemary was preceded in death by her husband, John Bradford Bowman and son, Bradford John Bowman. She is survived by her daughters Billie Moriaz, Stacie Keefe, Beverly Bowman and grandsons, Colby Keefe, Maika'ikeakua Moriaz and Kyle Keefe.

Rosemary was a dedicated military wife and mother, a kind and caring person who always gave of herself. She was a devout Catholic who was involved in her community and was music director of her parish in South Carolina and later years participated in the St Pius X Church adult choir in Conyers. She had a passion for music, a joy for singing and loved to share her talent with others. She was a lifelong patron of the Cultural Arts and as a member of the Charleston Symphony Singers Guild and the Charleston Choral Society she loved to perform in the Charleston Spoleto Festival and with the Charleston Symphony Orchestra. She was very artistic, creative and fun. She loved life and was a blessed and joyful soul.

A private family burial was held at Green Meadow Memorial Gardens on Monday, January 9, 2012 in Conyers, Georgia.
