“ We have a lot of good memories! Eating our veggies at Ryan's (and sneaking rolls out), moving furniture all around, sleeping in my twin bed as a kid. Walking to the mini mart and buying cheap toys and candy. Grilled cheese with ruffles and pickles at Beasley's. Tons of $5 bill gifts just because. Word searches, all the records from the vfw, wrestling, American gladiators, and coffee! We had a great time back then. Our little family will miss you the rest of our lives, but I'm so glad you're with Jesus! Love you so much!

I love you momma!!! You were a good mother taking care of us. I remember you being a hard worker at home and at your job. And never ever complained. Then there were the times you stayed most Saturdays at my house taking care of my kids while I was working. Never complaining once. I will miss you, but I am happy knowing you are with daddy, your momma and daddy, and the rest of your family. Until we meet again. Kathy
